My Song For You

Shooter Jennings

The dying day paints a portrait of sadness
Up upon this lonely LA tear
Have I found a home in this prison of my own
Trapped in a borderline career
But there she sits in a store on 13th street
Walking a borderline of her own
Is she ever gonna know the way that I see her
When she walks into a roomAnd I'm not exactly happy about all of the things that I've done
I've made some mistakes and I know that I'm young and I'm sorry if I hurt anyone
Well of all the things I'm proud of, and the places I've found in the sun
The way I find myself loving her is the best thing I've ever done
God knows its hard to let someone new in
When you're still looking for a sign
And the harder it sits, the older I get
But the taste is as sweet as wine
So come with me, skate across the dance floor
As I sing my song for you
But if you let go, I want you to know
That I'm saving my dance for youAnd I know I've climbed some mountains that I probably never should have climbed
I feel like falling farther and hit bottom harder that I've ever reasoned or rhymed
But if I only had a way to show her how deep my heartache runs
And the way I find myself loving her is the best thing I've ever done
And if anyone had ever told me I would love anyone this way
I probably would have never listened, but now I'm here and I have to say
That you only make me stronger, I've never been more proud of anyone
And the way I find myself loving you is the best thing I've ever done
