

Evil Warriors (Live '84)

Possessed

Music : MT Lyrics : JB

Solo : MT

When you wake up in the night

And you stare into the dark

Your eyes will scream for sight

Evil left its mark

You'll be looking all above

Looking all around

But if you want to see them

you have to look down

Tortured by thoughts stricken with fear

blasted to hell

the end is near

As you wait upon your fate your throat is full of pain and when you try to scream

You know it's all in vain

Nothing you can change

Destiny is complete silence seems so strange

As you start to feel the heat

Forever to burn

infinite pain

demons of darkness

warriors domain

Solo : LL

You think you're so secure

Gaze into the hell fire

I know you'll fall in love

They'll hunt you down at night

Your Flesh is what they want

Your eyes will scream for sight

When Evil comes to haunt

Cursed by nightmares

When you sleep

They'll cut your throat

And blood will seep

Fighting through the mist forever trapped in hell crushed with satan's fist
You can't escape his spell Sanity will pass Reality is just a word evil does its task
with its mighty sword Open your eyes and die by the hand of mass escape and you'll defy my long awaited grasp Solo : MT Solo : LL Solo : MT
They want to steal your soul Death will steal away Your wrongs will take their toll Below the crust you'll lay Spell has cast no hope forgotten thoughts of good Your neck awaits a rope And things go like they should Enslaved in forever torment blood drips from your eyes There is no way to repent from your wicked lies Blades of metal Cut off your head
Served as a meal Satan is fed
Masters of evil
Blasters of hell no one can stop them we're under their spell Red eyes are glowing With you in sight
And if your knowing Scream out in fright
