

Photoshop Handsome

Everything Everything

I will gain an extra life, when I get the high score.
You could respawn anywhere
I am one with the furniture, more inanimate than amateur
Like a television set! Gangrene knuckle announced so audibly!
I will boost my
Attention span, soon my clock will have a minute hand
You've become a smithereen!
(I'm watching that!)
Foxhound frolic on the abattoir floor, up in Heaven it's symmetrical oh

Airbrush!
What have you done with my father?

Why does he look like a carving?
How do I live in the present?
I make my
Own density?

And Ah-Ah-Ah!
Who did your Photoshop handsome?
You ready for
Reincarnation?
Gotta come back as something organic,
Or come back as
Something else!

Just come back as something else!

More dollar!
Less scholar!
Less time!

My teeth dazzle like an igloo wall,
I inhabit, I
Inhibit y'all!
Can you operate alone?
Chest pumped elegantly elephantine,
Southern hemisphere by Calvin Klein
Watch your dorsal fin collapse! I know

Nothing about my history!
I put a rain forest in an Oxo cube! Struck by Lightning if I take the tube!
Thank your chromosomes for that
I have skin
Like a waxen peel,
And a face that I can never feel but Airbrush!

What
Have you done with my landscape?
Flooding the fields with this clone
Shape?
Where is the country you died for?
And what is the century?

And
Ah-Ah-Ah!
Who did your Photoshop handsome?
You ready for Reincarnation?
Gotta come back as something less frantic
You gotta banish
That army of panic
Gotta come back as something organic,

Come back as
Something organic, or come back as something else!

I will gain an extra
Life,
I will gain an extra

Airbrush!
What have you done with my father?

Why does he look like a carving?
How do I live in the present?
I make my Own density?

And Ah-Ah-Ah!
Who did your Photoshop handsome?
You ready for Reincarnation?
Gotta come back as something organic,

Or come back as
Something else!
