Fool

Cherie

Somewhere out there I know that you're waiting for me
I'm still believing, dreaming that one day you'll see
Everybody tells me I've still got so much to learn
They don't seem to understandIt's a fool that falls in love and still gets lonely
Dreams are not enough or so they tell me
Someday, someway, somehow
You will find your way to me and then you will see that fool is meEvery moment I live without you breaks my heart
There's no one better, so why must we still be apart
No one ever told me you'd be the last one to love
I've gotta make you understandIt's a fool that falls in love and still gets lonely
Dreams are never enough or so they tell me
Someday, someway, somehow
You will find your way to meI believe that love plays a game with my heart
And there's nothing I can do
Don't you feel me tooIt's a fool that falls in love and still gets lonely
Dreams are not enough or so they tell me
Someday, someway, somehow
You will find your way to me and then you will seeIt's a fool that falls in love and still gets lonely
Dreams are not enough or so they tell meI'm dreamin', I'm waitin'
Inside my arms without you
I can't live without you
I want your hands by my side
(It's a fool that falls in love)I'm dreamin', I'm waitin'
Inside my arms without you
I can't live without you
I want your hands by my sideI'm dreamin', I'm waitin'
Inside my arms without you
