

Play With Fire

Silent Fall

these waves ripple in front of my eyes
And I fell the heat deep inside
This dance of colours so fascinating
Put a spell on me This force has a power
That noone can explain
And this light is still dancing
And captivates me Now it's too late because the match has been strucked
You should run away
If only you had known earlier who I am
But now it's too late Pyromaniac Rage oiling in the blood of my veins
Don't try to stand in my way cause I play with fire
You will rejoin ahes cause I play with fire These waves ripple in front of my eyes
And I fell the heat deep inside
But the day of your has come
You'll be ready for urn This force can't be out out
Why do you try to pray
Soon your body will be burning
I'll put you to the torch
