Wake Me Up

She Craves

I've been living in my head
Can you take me somewhere else instead Baby
I'm so tired of being someone else
Can you teach me how to be myself, yeah

There you go again
You said what's the point of staying in
If you spin, you win, you win

Shake me and wake me up
I'm so tired of this life
Show me what it means to finally feel alive
Cause I've been sleeping
And I think I've had enough
Shake me and wake me up

Can you show me how you do what you do?
Will you help me see things from a different view
I've been waiting for you to come around
And show me all that's lost in life with time it can be found

There you go again
What's the point of staying in
If you spin you win, you win

Shake me and wake me up
I'm so tired of this life
Show me what it means to finally feel alive
Cause I've been sleeping
And I think I've had enough
Shake me and wake me up

Oh I've been living in my head
You said I might as well, I might as well be dead
Well show me what I need cause I think I've had enough
Shake me and wake me up

Wake me up
Wake me up
Wake me up

Wake me up
