

Precious Lie

Cary Brothers

You whisper lightly
Your stakes are high
It's all denial this waking life So you are my precious lie
I told you I would break your heart
You were so in love
I was so inspired The stones are thrown
It's all laid bare
My non-stick mind is hardly there So you are my precious lie
I sold you out for one last high
You were so in love
I was so inspired It's so cold out, we are the righteous
Come and stay, you are my love
It's so cold out, we are the righteous
Come and stay, you are my love It's so cold out, we are the righteous
Come and stay, you are my
You're, you're, you're, you're So you are my precious lie
I told you I would break your heart
