Butterfly

The Verve

You could flap your wings a thousand miles away
Butterfly
A laughing salesman sings
His world so far away
ButterflyButterfly
ButterflyYou could take the storm away forever every day
'Cause you're mine and I don't know what to say
You could let my smile disappear for a year
'Cause you're mine that's the only way I like it to beButterfly
Butterfly
Butterfly
ButterflyYou could flap your wings a thousand miles away
I'd still feel the pain
I'd still feel the pain
You get your kicks from seeing me on the floor
Tied to your bed
Tied to the things you said
Butterfly coming back
Butterfly coming back
Butterfly coming back
Butterfly coming back
Butterfly coming back
Butterfly coming back
Butterfly coming backButterfly
Butterfly
Butterfly
Butterfly
Butterfly
Butterfly
