Den of Thieves

Immolation

These living quarters are off limits to you
These guarded borders are all subject to choose
Passive, not my tone of voice, no way
Not my choice, here to make a pointInside, you will find all that you need
In the den of thieves
Inside, you'll always find ecstasy
In the den of thievesThis propaganda can be hell against you
This four leaf clover can be lucky for you
Freedom and fortune waits for all time to Climb the wall and watch the old ways fallInside, sleep always comes easilyRadical changes are there pushing you through
Severing ties, a big decision for you
What will you doPower by rank and file
You must learn to smile
Lonely in the windInside, things aren't always what they seem
