The One That Got Away

Alice Cooper

You look like you'd fit in the trunk of my car
I might let you live, I might go too far
I could wrap you up and take you home
We'd be all aloneOr should I let you be the one that got away?
Knew it would happen but I didn't know it'd be today
All the voices in my head always seem insane
The one that got away, away, away, todayKeep it down, don't talk, I have to think
I could let you walk, I could feed the sink
I could grind you up and disappear
Like you were never hereShould I let you be the one that got away?
Knew it would happen but I didn't know it'd be today
All the voices in my head always seem insane
The one that got awayHi, I was just wondering
If you could help me out?
Um, my hands are full
Could you just help me open the door to my van?Oh I'm sorry, you see I just broke my nail
And I can't even hold my keys
I gotta go, dumb psycho
Hmm, must be your lucky dayOr should I let you be the one that got away?
Knew it would happen but I didn't know it'd be today
All the voices in my head scream insane
The one that got awayYou're the one that got away
Ah, you're the one that got away
The one that got away
Away, away, away, away, awayThe one that got away
Away, away, away, away, away
The one that got away
Away, away, away, away, awayHmm, maybe some other time
