

Time for That

Clint Black

Verse One: Alarm clock rings, can't hit the snooze,
Too much to do and no time to lose,
Fly out of my bed and into my shoes,
Hit the door, on the move,
Cell phone rings, it never ends,
One more thing if I can work it in,
I'm running a rat race that I can't win,
This big ole world takes another spin,
Then I do it all again, Chorus: I spent all my time making time,
To work on life's assembly line,
Try to find one more minute,
Squeeze one more thing in it,
On track for a heart attack,
If I don't do some kicking back,
Now I think it's high time,
To make a little more time for that, Verse Two: I got a great big list in front of me,
Things to do, folks to see,
I'm checkin them off one-two-three,
Dot the I's and cross the T's,
I just wanna get home to you,
And get right back to my honey do's,
Take a look, enjoy the view,
Catch a game, take a snooze,
Anything I choose, Chorus: I spent all my time making time,
To work on life's assembly line,
Try to find one more minute,
Squeeze one more thing in it,
On track for a heart attack,
If I don't do some kicking back,
Now I think it's high time,
To make a little more time, For king pole, napping by a fishin' hole,
Slow it all down to a crawl,
For a Sunday drive gettin' lost in my baby's eyes,
And I might even try doing nothing at all, Chorus:
I spent all my time making time,
To work on life's assembly line,
Try to find one more minute,
Squeeze one more thing in it,
On track for a heart attack,

If I don't do some kicking back,
Don't you think it's high time,
To make a little more time for that, Don't you think it's high time,
Yeah I need a little more time for that.
