Human Beings

Maritime

It is only love I feel
That will give us peace of heartIn my hour of desperate need
I feel closer to the oneOh, but why?Please human being
If you bleed they will say it was destined
They'll be punchin' tickets
For the minute if you fall out of line
Desperate, desperateTell me is it death you feel
That will bring you peace of life?Who wants
Tell me you're one of us
Tell me you're one
Tell me you're one of us
Tell me you're oneWhen you lose your self esteem
That's when love diesOh, please human being
If you bleed they will say that it's destined
They'll be punchin' tickets
For the minute if you fall out of line
We're mere human beings, we die
So, so desperate desperateWell I feel
When you've reached number one
You look like you're puffing but
Really only blocking the sun
Blocking the sun
Blocking the sun
Blocking the sunWe're mere human beings, we die
It's destined
They'll be punchin' tickets
For the minute you fall out of lifeWe're mere human beings, we die
We're mere human beings, we die
Desperate
It's destinedWe're mere human beings, we die
Desperate
It's destined, destined
