

Change of Heart

Dutch Criminal Record

(OFFICIAL Lyrics by Dutch Criminal Record)

Don't speak, of a change of heart that makes your knees weak, open your eyes to all you ache to see, the days are clear with possibility

And ohhh the feeling, is rising up inside my chest
My head, it's clearing, I wanna see, it for myself

Time is slow, like a rush of blood directions bound to flow
Now you've realised just where you're stood
Why stick around being misunderstood

So let the notion, begin to grow inside your soul,
Your chest is heaving, deep down you know, what you fear is what you wish too hold

Day to day I know it will, will be coming soon
To me it only seems so far away
