

Running Out of Reasons

The Wanted

(Oh, you're running out of reasons) Shut it out, what you heard about
What you heard about me
They say I'm rough or loud
But they don't know nothing
Not a thing about me So tear up that list of things you wrote down, wrote down
Why you can never be with me now, not now
I know where you wanna be You wanna say no, no, it ain't gon' work (oh)
But then you fumble your words
Oh, you're running out of reasons
No, no, tell all of your lies (oh)
But why are your lips on mine?
Oh, you're running out of reasons
Just let the fire burn, burn girl
Some things you can't unlearn, learn so
Fall, fall, let it all go (oh)
Fess up, you already know that
Oh, you're running out of reasons Stand right there
You'll never get nowhere
When you run like you do, like you do
It's no, no fair
I'm sure that your secret's out
Everyone sees right through you So tear up that list of things you wrote down, wrote down
Why you can never be with me now, not now
I know where you wanna be, yeah You wanna say no, no, it ain't gon' work (oh)
But then you fumble your words
Oh, you're running out of reasons
No, no, tell all of your lies (oh)
But why are your lips on mine?
Oh, you're running out of reasons
Just let the fire burn, burn girl
Some things you can't unlearn, learn so
Fall, fall, let it all go (oh)
Fess up, you already know that
Oh, you're running out of reasons There never was, never was a bad time to Love somebody, so love me baby, yeah
Never was, never was a better feeling than just saying yeah, yeah You wanna say no, no, it ain't gon' work (oh)
But then you fumble your words
Oh, you're running out of reasons

No, no, tell all of your lies (oh)
But why are your lips on mine?
Oh, you're running out of reasons
Just let the fire burn, burn girl
Some things you can't unlearn, learn so
Fall, fall, let it all go (oh)
Fess up, you already know that
Oh, you're running out of reasons
(reasons, reasons, reasons, reasons)
