

The Prayer of a Happy Housewife

Basia

When I look around it makes me wonder
Am I worthy of the most amazing life that I've been given
Did not care before but now I'm older
I see things in a different light
My grateful thoughts I raise to heaven Thank you for letting me dream and hope
Thank you for this man who's been always true
And I do know that I'm lucky to be this strong
'Cause some of us our weak if they only knew
Oh, if they knew When I walk the streets it makes me wonder
Am I deserving of the most amazing home that I've been given?
All the cardboard boxes are much colder
And when I watch our children grow
My grateful thoughts I raise to heaven Guide me and help me to carry on
I don't have to ask 'cause you've always seen me through
I am eternally thankful for what I have
And if anything goes wrong then I still have you
I still have you I see things in a different light
My grateful thoughts I raise to heaven
I see things in a different light
My grateful thoughts I raise to heaven
I see things in a different light
My grateful thoughts I raise to heaven (Guide me and help me to carry on)
Oh, I don't have to ask 'cause you've always seen me through (I am eternally thankful forever glad what I have)
And if anything goes wrong then I still have you
I still have you When I look around it makes me wonder
Am I worthy of the most amazing life that I've been given?
Did not care before but now I'm older
I see things in a different light My grateful thoughts I raise to heaven
My grateful thoughts I raise to heaven, aah
My grateful thoughts I raise to heaven
