

I Just Had To Hear Your Voice

Jordan Hill

I know you thought it best
That we spend a little time apart
But one night without you
Is so much for my heartI know I promised not to call
Sorry, but I didn't have a choice
I just had to hear your voiceOh, please don't be mad at me
'Cause I really did the best I could
Not to dial your number
But it didn't do much goodHung up the phone so many times
'Til I really didn't have a choice
I just had to hear your voiceI had to know that you're okay
I couldn't get to sleep feelin' this way
And I had to hear you say, "Hello"
I had to because I love you soI know you thought it best
That we spend a little time apart
But I had to hear your voice
Though I know it just wasn't right
I just had to hear your sweet voice
Tonight, ooh yeah, ooh yeah
