

The Irony Of Choking On A Lifesaver

All Time Low

Stop fucking around with my emotions
I like you better when you're numb
I'm sick and tired of false devotion
Devote yourself to moving on
Or suck it up and let it go...
But you're always out to get me
You're the snake hidden in my daffodils
When I'm picking flowers
That's just my luck these days
Why can't you just be happy for me?
You're the break-lights failing as my car
Swerves off the freeway
It kinda feels like sabotage
Why can't you just be happy for
Why can't you just be happy for me?
You think opinions make you savvy
Your running mouth falls of deaf ears
You say you're winning 'cause you're laughing
Well, I'm crying crocodile tears
Just suck it up and let it go
But you're always out to get me
You're the snake hidden in my daffodils
When I'm picking flowers

That's just my luck these days
Why can't you just be happy for me?
You're the break-lights failing as my car
Swerves off the freeway
It kinda feels like sabotage
Why can't you just be happy for
Why can't you just be happy for me?
Why can't you just be happy for me?
(I'll never be good enough, no. I'll never be good enough)
Why can't you just be happy for me?
(I'll never be good enough, no. I'll never be good enough)
But you're always out to get me
You're the snake hidden in my daffodils
When I'm picking flowers
That's just my luck these days

Why can't you just be happy for me?
You're the break-lights failing as my car
Swerves off the freeway
It kinda feels like sabotage
Why can't you just be happy for
Why can't you just be happy for me?
Stop fucking around with my emotions
Stop fucking around with my emotions
Why can't you just be happy for me?
