1000 Sins

Sinnergod

Lets play 1000 sins
So how will it begin?
Lets drag our thoughts away 'til someone else is dead
I'll nail the coffin in, time and time again
I'll bury you so deep, no demons sleep
I welcome you into my hell!I've got 1000 sins
You know you'll never win
Don't turn around coz it's me fucking with your head
And just you wait and see, the last time you will be
I'll bury you so deep, no demons sleep
Welcome to my hell!!Well, it's me against the world
I will leave no stone unturned
You will beg for me to live another day
While your heart is beating faster
I will always be a monster
With my 1000 sins you'll never win againLets play 1000 sins
There will be no happy end
I'll bang the drums while you are dancing with the dead
I'll nail the coffin in, time and time again
I'll bury you so deep, no demons sleep
Welcome to my hell!
