The Reaper

Beaver

Welcome to the Evil's nightmare
See the demons dancing round waiting for the reaper's rising Looking out for Satan's crowdThe grave is open, a digger's smile please welcome the deadLook Behind You; He Stands Behind You
The Reaper Shall Return
Look Reside You; Walks beside You
The Reaper has ReturnedTonight the Reaper's party is open Get entrance, get the trance
Forget about the words of warning
Forget about the smell of deathThe raft of death now leaves the landing
Waters wipe out space and time
Black man gives a skinless smile
Cold greetings reach your mind
