Love Takes Two

è¥¿åŸŽç”·å-©

Baby, tell me
Are we heading into trouble, yeah?
Is it my imagination taking hold?
Do I read too much into the way we sleep?
The way you move away from me
I may feel that you're the one
But when all is said and done
Love takes two
Time after time we've talked it through
'Cause baby, I need you
What am I supposed to do?
Love takes two
There's a whole lot of things
You can do and do without me, yeah
There's a million things I can do and do alone
But the best you can do for yourself
Is sharing with that someone else
No one wants to be alone
It's the one thing that I know
Love takes two
Time after time we've talked it through
'Cause baby, I need you
What am I supposed to do?
When your words could disguise
What you're going through
But they can't fool your heart
Now it's time to decide what you wanna do
I'm telling you
Love takes two
Time after time it's proven true
'Cause baby, I need you
What am I supposed to do?
Love takes two
Love takes two, me and you
What am I gonna do without you, baby?
And I need you
When you know that, I want it so bad
It's enough, girl to drive you crazy
'Cause love takes two, me and you

What am I gonna do about you, baby?
And I need you
When I know that, I want it so bad
It's enough, girl to drive you crazy
'Cause love takes two
