Hey big Betty
Sleepin' on a stone cold floor
You got to hold rock steady
Ain't nobody gonna take you ho-omeWoah! Hey big Betty
You've been holding out for, God too long!
Woah! You got to hold rock steady
He ain't comin' back to take you ho-omeAnd all the bad (bad) vibrations
Are building up around your world
And it's a sad (sad) situation
But it ain't my problem
Gotta save yourse-elfSo, hey big Betty (big Betty)

'Cuz he ain't comin' back to take you ho-ome(High pitched)

Oh! There used to be so many (Normal pitched)
But I guess it's time to just move on (just move on)And all the bad (bad) vibrations
