Forest Stream

All my doubts will vanish this night
With the arrival of the master of the Darkness and the Light
With the mournful wolves howl beneath the shadowy walls
    Of the ancient citadel in time of the tolls
    And the wanderers ride to be blessed by His Might
From the mouth of the Abyss where things have no names
    And all creatures 're created of Dark Blood and Flames
    Where the Sky and the Ground are united in one
    And the Eternity once has begun
    We are rising
    The Darkest of Names
Eternal for those who's alive and forbidden for the Wretched Ones
    We bring the Revelation of days
    For the Souls going not
From nowhere to nowhere
Following the Wind Wizard Omin has reached
    The Castle that stands in the Forest Bewitched
By Sonm - the Second Wanderer, He came from the Nord
    And now's greeting lord Omin by rising his Sword
    And they rode to the East being quicker than a beast
    In the eerie mountains under shroud of the Frost
    They have met Lord Anth - the Shepherd of Ghosts
    And three demon-like wanderers moved to the valley
Where every Dark Soul gives the Oath to Unholy
Oh now and forever our choice is made
    We swear by our Hearts and our blood on the Blade
    The Land of the Silent Scarlet Dawn
Waits for us to be enthroned
I shall lead you to the Magic Forest
    Deep underground in emerald caves
    There is no daylight in there
        And tunes of a flute
        Are in grace with Darkness
        There's no time at all...
