

Cut the World

Antony and the Johnsons

For so long Ive obeyed
That feminine decreeIve always contained
Your desire to hurt meBut when will I turn
And cut the world?When will I turn and cut the world?My eyes are coral
Absorbing your dreamsMy skin is a surface
To push to extremesMy heart is a record
Of dangerous scenes
But when will I turn
And cut the world?When will I turn and cut the world?
When will I turn and cut the world?
When will I turn and cut the world?When will I turn and cut the world?When will I turn and cut the world?
