

Happiness Is on the Outside

Flotation Toy Warning

Can you tell me why you left me here all on my own?

Can you hear me?

Do you listen to me?

'Cause I need you but you once told me that friends don't need me

They just need someone to phone when they have nobody,

Nobody else to shout at when they're so very down

I have a book in which that I write everything

And I know where you've been

One day I'll tell them how I defeated you

And how I took your throne

As the meanest bastard in all Albuquerque

And how I'm happy alone
