You're The One

Roy Orbison

You give me the feeling of ascending
Touching down and lifting off on feeling
Rising through the thunder and the lightning
'Til I know the wonder so excitingThe world below us doesn't know us
Still they try to follow where we run
Between you and me
Ooh, you're the oneYou kissing my breath away
You sharing my yesterdays
You tomorrow lead, I'll follow
When I hold you I am undoneYou're the one
You're the oneRiding through the heaven of sensation
Taken in your sunshine, sweet vibration
Holding nothing back, you're my elation
Through the night my sightless fascinationYou hold me in and out of dreams
Awake, asleep and loving leaves me stunned
Between you and me
Ooh, you're the oneYou kissing my breath away
You sharing our yesterdays
You tomorrow lead, I'll follow
When I hold you I am undoneYou're the one
You're the one
You're the one
You're the one
