

All Rise

Jackie Venson

I went to church today
To try to find my way
The preacher was a shade of grey
His eyes glued to the bookI turned on the radio
To make my heart grow
All the sounds stuck together
All the waves were doaOver again, over again
We never seem to learnAll rise for the wave of humanity trapped in insanity
All eyes on the wave of humanity trapped in insanity
Wouldn't you rather be in love?
All rise for the wave of humanity trapped in insanityI saw a film and cried
Cos it exposed the lies
Never reached its prime
The message lost in timeDon't know what to believe Versus what I perceive â•f The truth is in front of my eyesOver again over again
We never seem to learn[Chorus][Solo]It's over now it's over now
Love's become a rare kind
It's over now it's over now
Tadin' our souls for a piece of gold
It's over now it's over now
We never seem to learnWouldn't you rather be in love?
All rise for the wave of humanity wrapped in insanity
