You Walk, I Run (acoustic Demo)

Mxpx

I've been running for so long for all these years
Theres not much point in holding back the tears
And now the tears fall right out of my face
I've forgotten what i'm running for [2x]
Maybe i'm running in place, running in place
Seems like it's all been said a million times before
Seems like i've already been through the door
Why am i always running at this base
I've forgotten what i'm running for [2x]
Maybe i'm running in place, running in place

You walk, i run
You walk, i run
I don't even think about it
You walk, i run
You walk, i run
I don't even think about it
You walk, i run
You walk, i run
I don't even think about it
You walk, i run
You walk, i run. [2x]
