

Done Waiting

I Was Totally Destroying It

Sad, sad sobered up you come to reconcile
It was a bad, bad call when we started up and it took a while
For me to know, dear
How you ended up in my backyard
Such a shame, dear
The self-destruction of what you thought you are

I'm done waiting for something to be there
I'm done waiting for a new feeling

I think I liked you best when you were sleeping
You always talk, talk, talked, you never gave it a rest
And you're not worth keeping around

I'm done waiting for something to be there
I'm done waiting for a new feeling
(But we're all here waiting on the waiting floor)
I'm done waiting for a new feeling

So many flaws that don't add up to anyone

---

Lyrics submitted by John.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>