When the Blue Hour Comes

Joan Osborne

The good times are all gone, the night keeps coming on so strong
You can't hold on, no matter what you do
Will there be someone who cares for you
When the blue hour comes, when the blue hour comesAnd when your restless heart, tears your world apart
And everywhere you turn, it's coming down on you
Will there be a light that shines for you?
When the blue hour comes for youIf there's anything that you would have me do
Just call on me and I'll be coming through
I will always be there for you
When the blue hour comes, when the blue hour comesGood times don't last forever, sometimes it's now or never Darling, reach out for me, you know where I'll be
I will always be there for you
When the blue hour comes, when the blue hour comes for you
