Sneak A Picture

Junior Boys

Game over, it's a new owner
Punches chipping off your pride
Move slower, you're one day older
Find the darkest side of the night
Sneak a picture above my shoulder
Don't make a sudden move
You'll spoil the light
Oh, no
Once, double stride
Roll again till it's right
Twice, sudden start
Move around, find the part
Pan forward and frame the border
Clean up every matching line
She looks perfect in every color
Find the one that's not too bright
Sneak a picture of a cheap performer
Don't let it go too far
'Cause it's not the art
Oh, no, oh, no
Once, double stride
Roll again till it's right
Twice, sudden start
Move around, find the part
Once, double stride
Find your pace deep inside
Twice, sudden start
Sleep it off, where you are
Once, know your smile
Add some more, on your bedroom pile
Twice, trick your heart
Show the lens who you think you are
Sneak a picture, catch an empty corner
And dress it with a set
Of your best regrets
Then go, then go
Till it's right, once, double stride
Find the part, twice, sudden start
Deep inside, once double stride

Where you are, twice, sudden star
Bedroom pile, once, know your smile
Who you are, twice, trick your heart
