Man, you had me fooled
What I thought was sweet was so rude, now
You can see all them words
Cause such a [Incomprehensible]
What you are is a problem
No, and you won't change me
'Cause I'll never go
No, I never know
Chocolate covered sheets
More than [Incomprehensible]
That was once homemade

Well now, I know I can't be saved by you
You and I won't have to go
And all my dreams
Are a part of you now
They're a part of you now
Please won't you go
And set me down?
I'm not sure what goes on
What goes on, yeah
