Sad Girl

Lana Del Rey a

I seen her at a stoplight on Alverano
Was sittin' in a pearl white Eldorado
In a gangsta lean, she was revvin' the throttle
Got a sticker on the bumper, say's she like techanoShe looked like Selena
The truth couldn't be plainer
She like a gangster boogie
Her Mommy calls her CookieHer friends call her a sad girl
'Coz her man went away
And he ain't never comin' back
So cry another tattoo tearSad girl livin' on the east side of the city
Proud woman boy, she don't want none of your pity
Sad girl, got no one to rely on
Proud woman don't need your shoulder to cry onI seen her at the market, she was pushin' a stroller
Smokin' on a cigarette, drinkin' a soda
Laughin' at a joke that somebody just told her
Got her baby's name tattooed on the back of her shoulderShe looked like an Angel
She talked like the Devil
She feels like a stranger
She lived like a rebelShe's a sad girl
'Coz her man went away
And he ain't never comin' back
So cry another tattoo tearSad girl livin' on the east side of the city
Proud woman boy, she don't want none of your pity
Sad girl, got no one to rely on
Proud woman don't need your shoulder to cry onFace sad girl, we can take this slow
Baby, what you lookin' for? Let me know
You say you wanna man that can give you some dough
You say, "Buy my baby shoes and buy him a coat
And buy my baby food to put down his throat"
I won't play you like a hoe, it ain't like that, yo
Let me holla at you later, we can go to the show
I ain't tryna rock the boat, I'm tryna keep you afloatI seen her at the post office mailin' a letter
She couldn't send no money but she made him a sweater
She's talkin' on the pay phone and somethin' upset her
I really wanna hold her but I only just met herBut I could tell she'd been crying
She said she felt like dyin'
She never been so alone, no
She gotta make it on her own nowShe's a sad girl
'coz her man went away

And he ain't never comin' backSad girl livin' on the east side of the city
Proud woman boy, she don't want none of your pity
Sad girl, got no one to rely on
Proud woman don't need your shoulder to cry onSad girl
Sad girl
