

Complaining

SD

(Intro)

I know you tired

Cause I'm tired(Hook x2)

Complaining complaining, no that ain't my avenue

Complaining complaining, girl I might get tired of you

Complaining complaining

Relax and take yo mind away, girl I'm here to take time away(Verse: SD)

See girl, just stop all the nonsense, aye

Relax, don't be angry

Girl what seem to got to you?

The strangest things lately

Don't lie, quit complainin', boo

You fallin', be painless

The struggles we gon' make it through

I promise not to hate you

Forever I might cherish you

Somethings may not change

Just patience, we gon' wait the truth

Sometimes people change, and me girl I admit

That you no one to stay the same

Don't think girl, it ain't known to you

I finally found a way

To show you that I'm here wit you

These games you be playin'

But I can't stay upset wit you

You need to stop the same

Girl, why you keep complaining, boo?(Hook x2)

Complaining complaining, no that ain't my avenue

Complaining complaining, girl I might get tired of you

Complaining complaining

Relax and take your mind away, girl I'm here to take time away(Verse: SD)

I know girl, errybody got their reasons

But I promise, that ain't gonna get us nowhere

Chill baby, take your mind away!

Don't be playin', relax, aye

The stories keep changin'

Girl, I'm so stuffed on havin' you

Don't mention me with lames

Girl you might catch a knot or two

Now I'm here to change the game
Don't think bout what you missin', boo
You focused tryna aim
You worried 'bout what I'mma do(Hook x2)
Complaining complaining, no that ain't my avenue
Complaining complaining, girl I might get tired of you
Complaining complaining
Relax and take your mind away, girl I'm here to take time away
