Broken Man

Submersed

It's always happens for a reason, over and over
We're trying to heal ourselves all the shame and tears
We chase away and oh these times are going to change
I'll change'Cause what I am is a broken man
And I don't know what I'm fighting for
All I see is beyond my reach
I've got one chance left to make it throughIt always changes with the seasons
I living lesson
And a soul to tellThe paths we walk are all uneven
And oh these times are going to change
I'll change'Cause what I am is a broken man
And I don't know what I'm fighting for
All I see is beyond my reach
I've got one chance left to make it throughI'm tired of waiting, tired of wasting my time
I'm tired of feeling, I'm tired of feeling
My time's lied
I'm tired of waiting, tired of wasting my time
