Over Now

Coverdale/Page

You said you'd give me love
Instead you caused me pain
You made me curse and slam the door
And hang my head in shameBut, it's over now, it's over nowYou talked to me of virtue
And sang a song so sweet
All I know is I could smell
The perfume of deceitIt's over now, it's over nowYou told me of your innocence
And I believed it all
But your best friend is your vanity
And the mirror on the wallIt's over nowI turned away from what I heard
And everything I saw
Now I see the light of day
I release the dog of warSo whatcha gonna do
When the truth pays you a call?
How you gonna feel
When you finally lose it all?How you gonna look Standing up against the wall
Whatcha gonna do? Whatcha gonna say
When you feel the hammer fall?
I'm gonna see you crawlYou took your pills and washed them down
And then you talked for hours
I tried to build a garden
But you trampled all the flowersAnd it's over nowWanting this, needing that Always after more, now that it's all over
I release the dog of war
I release the dog of warSo whatcha gonna do
When the truth pays you a call?How you gonna look Standing up against the wall?Whatcha gonna do? Whatcha gonna say
When you feel the hammer fall?Whatcha gonna do? Whatcha gonna say
Standing up against the wall?So whatcha gonna do? Whatcha gonna say Mamma, when you feel the hammer fall?
So whatcha gonna do?

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/