Froze Over

Tracy Lawrence

She just closed the door
And tonite the heartaches begin
I've lost the key to heaven
And my angel just wont let me inWell I begged and pleaded down on my knees
To a heart that has turned as cold as ice
She once swore she loved me
Till hell froze over
Well hell just froze over toniteShe said I love you darlin till death do us part
And I said I do too darlin with all of my heart
Hand and hand together, forever, we'd walk side by side
But I took her for granted
Took too many chances, until her love for me diedShe just closed the door
And tonite the heartaches begin
I've lost the key to heaven
And my angel just won't let me inWell I begged and pleaded down on my knees
To a heart that has turned cold as ice
She once swore she loved me till hell froze over
Well hell just froze over toniteShe once swore she loved me till hell froze over
Well hell just froze over tonite
