

Ghetto Love

Mario

I cant do this no more
This aint gon work, man(Here I go again)
Shes callin me, two way with a secret code
(Here I go again)
Preparin to leave, pay the bar off
These chicks wont let me go(Tell the one in the red dress)
Ima see what I can do about that
(Told the one in the white shirt)
Hit me back, told the one in the black
Girl, Ima get back(Here I go again)
On the freeway, meetin' shawty at the getaway
(Here I go again)
Turn it up, cant go to sleep
Cause Im thinkin bout my girlAnd Im tired of the games
Different faces, different names
I know somethins gotta changeThat aint how I wanna live
Every night a different chick
I done hit the models at the parties
In the city that never sleepsBut I know when I touch down
My girl's got that ghetto love
Cause Im like Knightwrita
And the soul providerGotta change the game
Dippin off you ain't the same
But I know when I touch down
My girl's got that ghetto love(Now I'm thinkin)
Wantcha catch a flight 2 am up on the red-eye
(But Im thinkin)
If I see my girl shes gonna see the cheatin in my eyes(Then I crept outta bed)
Went to the bathroom to clear my head
(Took a look in the mirror)
Looked at the bed
Wishin I had my girl here instead(I started thinkin)
Maybe Im buggin
Maybe I just wanna get with other women
(But I'm thinkin)
That dont make no sense
Cause none of them measure up to what she gives, noAnd Im tired of these games
Different faces, different names
I know somethins gotta changeThat aint how I wanna live

Every night a different chick
And I done hit the models at the parties
In the city that never sleepsBut I know when I touch down
My girl's got that ghetto love
Cause Im like Knightwrita
And the soul providerGotta change the game
Dippin off you ain't the same
But I know when I touch down
My girl's got that ghetto love, yeah(And I'm thinkin)
Maybe I'll just call my girl
And tell her that I need her ghetto love
(Maybe I should just leave)
Grab the keys to my car and leave
Cause I know this chick ain't my ghetto love(What am I doin?)
Maybe I should take a minute
Clear my head before I jump the gun, baby
(I know what I need)
Cause I know what I need right now
And its gotta be my ghetto loveThat aint how I wanna live
Every night a different chick
I done hit the models at the parties
In the city that never sleepsBut I know when I touch down
My girl's got that ghetto love
Cause Im like Knightwrita
And the soul providerGotta change the game
Dippin off you ain't the same
But I know when I touch down
My girl's got that ghetto loveI aint goin' nowhere, Im staying right here
And God, oh no, don't you worry about it, no, no
