

Whiskey (Lost Recording #5)

Mark Diamond

I know the lie you burn
Would you love me like I was; an honest man Im tempted by the way my glass of whiskey taste but I keep pouring it down the drain Cause lately it doesn't feel the same
Im laying on my ruse living in the future just like the good girls that left me always said id do maybe there right
I guess I don't know
And Im feeling down and out I can't fall asleep its all the doubts I don't know if we make it on our own

And I'm feeling down and out
I can't fall asleep its all the doubts I don't know if we make it on our own

I know Im hard to love and i get it if you choose to run can't say I wouldn't do the same can't say I wouldn't make the same mistakes but I hope u understand that i wanna be your man and nothings gonna change

And When I'm feeling down and out
I can't fall asleep its all the doubts I don't know if we make it on our own

I never meant to break those promises if you let my love come through through my imperfections
