Back in My Younger Days

Don Williams

Back in my younger days, I used to go all night
Now I just stay at home, and everything is all right
Back when I first met you, I used to live in a haze
That was so long ago, back in my younger daysI would do anything, just a stumbling fool
It's a wonder I'm standing here, I've broken so many rules
Now I dance with you every night, and still I'm so amazed
Your love made a man of me, back in my younger daysOh, it doesn't seem that long ago
You, you make it feel like the first time we made love
And I ain't ever getting enough
Well, well, well...As I go through the photographs, I laugh and turn the page
It's the ballad of me and you, from such an innocent age
Talk about a dream come true, we reinvented a phrase
It's better than it used to be, back in my younger daysBack in my younger days, Back in my younger days
It's better than it used to be, back in my younger days...
