

You Hung the Moon

Admiral Twin

You sank down from the weight of the crown
That you gave away
Is that what you want?
You fell back home
Beaten, stoned and forgiven... forgiven
The Old Man, he always believed you But I knew better... I read your letters
So I donâ€™t wanna read about it
I donâ€™t wanna hear about it now

We found you sleeping out on the porch
Like a vagabond
Is that what you want?
You caved in when you ran out of friends
And your credit was dead and your wounds wouldnâ€™t mend
Now everythingâ€™s laid before you Milk and honey... blood money
But I donâ€™t wanna think about it I donâ€™t wanna think about it now

You hung the moon
you lit the stars up sun by sun
I did all I could do
But you were the one
you were the one
I stayed in school
You broke all the girls
and crashed your car
But that donâ€™t matter at all
â€™cause you hung the moon

Are you gonna rise?
Are you gonna crawl on the floor?
Cry a little more
Everybody know what you did... what you did

Iâ€™m glad youâ€™re on your own

Itâ€™s good you found your way back home
Call the doctor... call the doctor

The same song in a different key
Is that what you want?
Is that what you want?

You hung the moon
you lit the stars up sun by sun
I did all I could do
But you were the one
you were the one
I stayed in school
You broke all the girls
and crashed your car
But that donâ€™t matter at all
â€™cause you hung the moon

Are you gonna rise?
Are you gonna crawl on the floor?
Cry a little more
Everybody know what you did what you did with the money

Lyrics Submitted by Richard Gagnon

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>