All Day, All Night

Changing Faces

No no no no
No no no no no
No no no no
No no no no noAll day, all night
All day, all nightYou used to be someone I could hold
You used to be somebody I could talk to
But now everything has gone wrong
Why the hell do you expect me to sweat youEvery time I ask you
You up and walk away
Drama is all you bring me
That's why I gotta say parlayAll day, all night
I need a man who's gonna do me right
All day, all night
That's the kind of man I need in my lifeYou used to take me out on the town with you
And kept your arms wrapped around me
Now every time I turn around, I'm beggin' you
But dammit you're too blind to seeEvery time I page ya
You never return my calls
Now I know why I'm leavin'
Cause you don't give me your allAll day, all night
I need a man who's gonna do me right
All day, all night
That's the kind of man I need in my life
All day, all night
I need a man who's gonna do me rightNah nah nah
Nah nah nah nah nahNo more strokin' up and down
You're too busy
Foolin' Around
No more strokin' up and down
You must be zonin' boyAll day, all night
I need a man who's gonna do me right
All day, all night
That's the kind of man I need in my lifeAll day, all night
All day, all nightAll day, all night
All day, all night
