Shadowchild

Soilwork

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I lick the surface of a freedom ride
Under a hammering light, I screamLet's roll the dice of the future
Burning in my hand
I've built destruction upon the velvet skies
Maybe I'm strong, maybe I'm wrongLead us, Shadowchild
Soiled by your faith in disguise
Shadow side, reflecting the eyesI'm raising hell, a magic spell
Pain and pleasure together as one
I will recall, I will recall
When I'm down the stairsI spit human cries
I can feel when they lie
My sun being one with the universe
Hear my callLead us, Shadowchild
Soiled by your faith in disguise
Shadow side, reflecting the eyesCreating my crown from the millions of lights
I'm abused beyond recognitionPre-millennium futuristic
I predict you all to live
Under an individual sun
We're all collecting our senses and runLead us, Shadowchild
Soiled by your faith in disguise
Shadow side, reflecting the eyesLead us, Shadowchild
The truth's lying far from your life
Shadow side, reflecting the eyes
