

We

Zaa

Those who risk can claim rewards.
There is no easy way out, no there's no easy way out.
Be the relief for those who suffer more,
No, you're not alone Inna this Babylon.Cry out loud you'll get your throat sore.
Your vote they'll ignore, my vote even more.
Those who risk can claim rewards.
There is no easy way out, no there's no easy way out.You and me must become we,
And then we must be everybody.Mind and might, justice will prevail,
Stronger we will rise, even if we fail.
Join your hands together we shall stand.
Keep your head up high, to break us they will try.Sticks and stones may break our bones,
But word never dies, everybody knows!
Mind and might, justice will prevail,
Stronger we will rise even if we fail.You and me must become we,
And then we must be everybody,
You and me must become we,
And then we must be everybody...
