

Now or Never

The Willis Clan

This is the time for us to start
Writing our history
This is the time we stand apart
Weâ€™re breaking free

Weâ€™re walking away from what we know
Taking a chance on where we wanna go
Maybe itâ€™s hard for us to see
All of the things we someday wanna be
Thereâ€™s no surrender
And weâ€™re never turning back
Though we will remember
Everything we had
Thereâ€™s no more waiting on forever
Itâ€™s now or never

This is the time we say goodbye
To all of our present fears
Here in this place we somehow find
That they disappear

Just give your everything
This is what youâ€™re made for
We can conquer anything
