Careless

Stephen Bishop

Careless, why must I be so careless?
I only want the best for you
Yes, I'm truly carelessCareful, why hurt the one
I'll hold tonight?
Just when the feeling felt so right
Oh, I should be carefulHow many times should I apologize?
How many times should I cry?
I was lonely, away from home
Feeling so alone just like nowSleepless, how can I sleep knowing I hurt you so?
Maybe I'm crazy, I don't know
But if you'd go I'd be helpless
