

Still Breathing

Stars Hide Fire

Today (These days),
I'm shattered (I'm better),
I feel as if I don't matter much(I don't want to feel).
Is this the end of me?I've got (I have),
This letter (Forever),
Unread I'm glad I never sent it but(This is all of me).
You know I'd rather write than speak.It's hard explaining when your wrong.
It's hard forgiving when your strong.
As I burn out and rot.
As I burn out and rot.
This fire's burning down these walls.
This world's not meant for you and me.I'm still breathing,
My lungs bleeding,
I'm leaving now.
Do we always have to end like this?
I'm still breathing air through collapsed lungs,
through collapsed lungs.Today (today),
I'm stronger (I'm bitter),
knowing that I don't belong with her (I just want to feel).
Took you to give me strength.
I use (I have),
four letters (forever).
To form words that help me to forget her (for you to find me).
You know I only curse when i'm weak.As I burn out and rot.
As I burn out and rot.
This fire's burning down these walls,
this world's not meant for you and me.I'm still breathing,
My lungs bleeding,
I'm leaving now.
Do we always have to end like this?
I'm still breathing,
air through collapsed lungs,
through collapsed lungs.As time runs out.
As time runs out.As I burn out and rot.
As I burn out and rot.
As I burn out and rot.
As I burn out....Im still breathing. My lungs bleeding.
(I'm still breathing without you)
I'm leaving now. Do we always have to end like this.

(I'm still bleeding without you)I'm still breathing air through collapsed lungs, through collapsed lungs.
Yes, I'm still breathing air.
(I'm still breathing without you.)
I'm still breathing air.
(And I'm still yours...)
