

Before the Goodbye

Britney Spears

Laying here in your arms
And you hold me tight, tight
Tryin' not to watch the clock
Tick, tickin' as the time goes by (by)
And I know that you best be on your way
But I'm wishin' I could make you stay
Stay with me for a while Though
You're near
Still
I want to make it clear
Love
I will always be around You're leaving
I'm waiting
Forgive me
I'm always missing you
Before the goodbye I Feel It
Already
Forgive me
I'm always missing you
Before the goodbye Kinda hard for me to let you know
I don't let my feelings show
How much I will miss in you
All the little things that make me weak
Your eyes and the way you speak
Without you baby I'm not me (I'm not me) Though
You're near
Still
Love
I will always be around
