Leave No Trace

Fool's Gold

Im always running in the dark
Trying to catch a spark
Ill revere it as it fades
And leave no trace
And leave no traceId be chasing anything
That had a hook to cling
With no regard for saving face
Ill leave no trace
Ill leave no traceIm always running back for more
When I should be moving on
Like an arc in hollow space
Ill leave no trace
Ill leave no traceIll assume you are a saint
That knows exactly where I am
Be a guide without complaint
And leave no trace
And leave no traceI will attend to our secret
A little lie is better yet
I will attempt to leap
From a higher surfaceI will attend to our secret
A little lie is better yet
I will attempt
