

Loving a Restless Heart

World5

I can feel you still when I close my eyes
Even though we're worlds apart
But I walked through hell to see your smile
Just to find a restless heart As I turned around to see your face
The gold flakes in your azure eyes
Oh I did my best to satisfy
Captured by those endless lies Now I know, Love can turn in a minute
Only know I'm glad I'm in it
Memories still linger as the moments fade away
Embers die and fade in an instant only one thing to say
Doomed from the start loving a restless heart Even now I stop and wonder why
Still it takes my breath away
And I know I should be satisfied
Loving you from day to day Wouldn't change a thing if I thought I could
Your beauty so misunderstood
Only now I see right from the start
The wonders of a restless heart Now I know, Love can turn in a minute
Only know I'm glad I'm in it
Memories still linger as the moments fade away
Embers die and fade in an instant only one thing to say
Wouldn't change my part loving a restless heart
