

Sun Has Gone

Broken Twin

I don't know where the sun has gone
It darkens all around you John
Shaved your head and sold your drum
Sorrow lost and sorrow won
When you walk across the floor
Like you lost it all before
Remember now when you were young
And didn't know what to become
Said you'd fall in love with anyone I don't know where the sun has gone
It darkens all around me John
I'm dressed up in a summer song
Sorrow lost and sorrow won
I long for more than I can get
I find it hard to simply live
And I don't know how to be young
So tell me now whose side you're on
You fall in love with anyone
